

Eight Specific Experiences/Achievements

An achievement is something you feel you have done well, it is something you have enjoyed and of which you are proud. In the space below, write sentences about eight of your satisfying experiences or achievements and describe what you enjoyed the most about them. The examples do not necessarily have to be 'work' related.
